

THROWLEIGH FETE AND HORTICULTURAL SHOW

Saturday 17 August 2019

Village Hall and field 2-5pm

This year we will be returning to our traditional venue at the Village Hall and adjacent field, by kind permission of Clive Harding. Come and join us! Enjoy all the fun of our traditional village fete – bottles, bric-a-brac, books and cake stalls, coconut shy and other games, children's and adults' races, egg throwing, Pimms and ices, cream teas.

Help wanted please: – contact Mike Duffy (01647 231359) or Chris Ball (01647 231673) who will gladly welcome

- Volunteers to help set up tents and marquees at any time between 10am and 7pm on Friday 16th (BBQ lunch provided)
- Offers to help manage stalls and games
- Donation of books, bric-a-brac, cakes and prizes
- Donation of bottles (anything from tomato sauce to champagne) – Kim and Ann Warwick-Oliver (01647 231303) will be calling on doors in the two weeks before the fete.
- Please enter produce and photographs for the Horticultural Show by completing and returning the form provided or taking copies from the www.Throwleigh.org website.
