

THROWLEIGH VILLAGE HALL

WINTER PROGRAMME 2015-16

Christmas Bingo, Friday 11 December 2015

Come to our traditional Christmas Bingo evening with prizes of duck, chicken, pork, gammon, lamb and beef meal hampers, wines, chocolates and much more. Doors open at 6.45pm and eyes down at 7.30. Bring your own drinks and nibbles.

Quiz and Curry evening, Friday 22 January 2016

Gather a team of up to four to test your general knowledge and enjoy a winter-warming meal at the same time. Entry fee of £30 a team which must be registered in advance with Mike Duffy (contact address below). Those wishing to participate but who do not have a team should give their names to Mike Duffy who will find a team for them. 7pm for 7.30 start.

Folk Music Concert by the James Finlay Trio,

Sunday 28 February 2016 (Arranged in conjunction with Villages in Action)

James Findlay has won several national competitions including the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award 2010. His distinctive voice, guitar and fiddle playing are backed by the multi-instrumental talents of John Dyer and Alfie Gidley. Begins 7.30pm. Tickets £10 (children £5) to include refreshments, from Mike Duffy (contact address below).

Talk by Paul South on 'Traditional woodland skills',

Friday 8 April 2016

Paul is a forester with the National Trust in North Devon and his illustrated talk will explore the lessons of past and present experience in the maintenance and harvesting of woods and trees. Begins 7.30pm. Tickets £5 (children £2.50) in advance from Mike Duffy (contact address below) or at door.

Enquiries to Mike Duffy, Pease Close, Shilstone Lane, Throwleigh EX20 2HX, 01647 231359 or M.Duffy@exeter.ac.uk